

About LAC Group

Since 1986 LAC Group, a woman-owned small business, has delivered multifaceted professional services, providing disciplined and innovative library, legal, information and research staffing, consulting, project management and information and document management services.

Our staffing services include recruiting and managing information workers from C-level executives to library support personnel. Typical positions include library and information professionals, document and records specialists, contract attorneys & paralegals, knowledge managers and digital asset specialists.

Our Federal Clients Include

National Aeronautics and Space Administration

Library of Congress

National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration

Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms

Department of State/USAID

Environmental Protection Agency

National Institute of Standards and Technology

Government Printing Office

Department of Justice

National Institute of Health

Department of Agriculture

OUR PEOPLE - YOUR RESULTS

Contract Vehicles

GSA Schedule 736 – Technical Administrative & Professional Staffing Services

GSA Schedule 036 – The Office, Imaging and Document Solution

EPA Information Management Center Services (IMCS)

Library of Congress 'MEGA' Library Services

Army HR Solutions Personnel Support Services

Solution Offerings

- Consulting and Project Management
- Information and Asset Management
- Library and Research Services
- Legal Staffing
- Knowledge Management
- Recruiting

Contact Information

For information about LAC Group, please contact:

Jim Dieterle
info@lac-group.com
240-292-0497

Visit us online at lac-group.com.

