

The eVOKE™ Advantage

RESEARCH AND CONSULTING, LLC

Innovation

Evoke's Communities of Practice (CoP) is an internal program for research, innovation and improvement, continuously assessing industry trends, emerging technologies, and training and certification programs in business and financial management and technology services to improve the firm's delivery capability.

Evoke's CoP delivers the innovation that bridges the divide between requirements identification and solution delivery, effectively and efficiently. The vision for the Evoke CoPs: Solution delivery by one consultant is always the result of multiple subject matter experts.

Philosophy

Utilize knowledge of industry best practices to customize the best solution possible for each client.

Corporate Methodology

Strategy — We implement cross-functional strategy for compliance, including implementation of executive level direction and support, the involvement of key stakeholders, and a clear linkage to operating unit program plans.

Process — Our focus is on implementing strong, repeatable processes that facilitate advancements in maturity.

Governance — Deliver a comprehensive strategy and repeatable process to ensure that activities are aligned with the current initiatives.

Education — Ensure the client receives a built-in communications outreach strategy that disseminates current guidance and data requirements, as well as a feedback function for overall improvement.
